Scott Baldassari: Oil and Acrylic Painting Scott has been painting the Ozarks for 20+ years. Realistic, landscapes and portraits mostly in Acrylic. No "institutional" art training, just hours and hours behind a canvas, parked on the roadside or sitting near a creek. Many paintings are reproduced into affordable smaller prints; matted and framed by the artist, in his own hand made barnwood frames. See his work at the Nelms Gallery in Jasper. www.ScottsPaintings.com	Don Kitz: Egg Tempera, Watercolor &amp; Oils Trained with B.A. and M.F.A. at several fine art institutions. Worked as an illustrator and taught at North Arkansas College for 20 years. Don Works with Egg Yolk and Pigment on gessoed panels. See his work at his beautiful retreat/studio on Highway 21 (near the Southwest corner of the map).	Don Nelms: Photography "Photography is a way for me to express myself; to share my desire to preserve our natural world." Over the last decade, Don has taken hundreds of thousands of photographs and hand picks the best images to print, display, and sell at the Nelms Gallery in downtown Jasper. Visit us at the Gallery and see Don's work, and the work half a dozen other local artists.  www.NelmsGallery.com
Ron and Sydney Cox: Woodturning We bring out the beauty and harmony in each turning of our local woods. We use an old lathe, with no duplicator, so each piece is truly one of a kind, &amp; can be treasured for generations. Visit us, and our wolves at Howling Wolf Hollow in Parthenon.	Pamla Klenczar: Acrylic, Pen &amp; Ink, Pencil In the middle of the forest, with 2 large dogs and her husband, Pamla loves to paint with pens, pencils and brushes from the photorealistic to the surreal. See Pamla and her newest work at her beautiful and secluded home/studio near Ponca and the Buffalo.  870-861-5853 leatherwood@eritter.net	Mary Olson: Cement, Jewelry and Mosaics Mary lives just minutes from the Buffalo River, Surrounded by bluffs and creeks. Her Homestead and Studio is part 1930's Ozark Architecture, part stucco, part straw bale, and part imagination. Come check out her Mosaics made from Glass, Tile, Cement, and found stuff. This year Mary will be showing with Merlyn Lazorow at her Art Space Studio on Mount Sherman.
Janine Croxford: Reduction, Solar and Ice dyed clothing After 15 years of traveling to Art show Janine has finally settled down. She now does shows closer to home with her one of a kind, hand dyed clothing creations from head to toe. Look for the Purple mail boxes near the Glory Hole hiking trail ART-more or less.com	Merlyn Lazorow: Paint, Fabric &amp; Print Born in Newton County, and returning after teaching Art in Kansas City, Merlyn's artistic spirit is very much grounded in nature, which manifests itself in all of her assorted artistic endeavours. See her work at her Art Space Studio on Mount Sherman.	Amelia A. Renkel: Jewelry, Painting, Photography &amp; Textiles Amelia returned to Arkansas in 1994 after serving 12 years in the US Airforce. She has earned a degree in Graphic Design. Art is a form of therapy for Amelia, allowing her to express and escape from limitations of the body; focus the mind, and calm the spirit. Amelia will be showing her work at the Mount Sherman Community Building West of Town on Highway #74.
Laura Dobbs: Acrylic, Oils, Watercolor, &amp; Colored Pencil Originally from Southeast Missouri, Laura moved to Jasper 3 years ago and started painting again.
